All offers of admission are extended with the understanding that your record of academic achievement and personal conduct will remain at least at the level as when we reviewed an application. Maine Maritime Academy reserves the right to rescind an offer of admission if it is learned that subsequent academic performance or personal behavior are viewed to be substandard or inappropriate.

It is the policy of Maine Maritime Academy (MMA) that no discrimination on the ground of race, religion, color, gender, age, sexual orientation, national origin, handicap, or veteran's status will exist in the area of MMA. This policy of nondiscrimination is applicable both to the admission of students and employment in all aspects of MMA's operation. MMA's policies are guided by, but not limited to, the requirements of the Federal Executive Orders 11246, and 11375, as amended; Title VI and VII and the Civil Rights Act as amended, and Title IX of the Higher Education Act of 1972.

MMA subscribes to all provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 pertaining to admission and hiring of the handicapped.

Any student or employee or person seeking admission or employment deeming her or himself to have been the object of discrimination on any of the grounds cited above may appeal for redress to the MMA Executive Director of Planning, Compliance, and Administrative Operations, who has been designated as Director, Equal Opportunity Compliance. A direct appeal may be made to the Secretary of Education, Washington, D.C. (6/07)
